WHY WE LIKE HER: Progeny of Kantharos have proven to be fast and precocious. This filly presented herself extremely well at the sale and, as a May foal, has plenty of room for growth and development. She looks like she could be a speedy, win-early type. As a registered New York-bred, she will have plenty of opportunities to provide added value. The goal is to have her ready for a 2-year-old debut early next summer in Saratoga.

WHAT’S NEXT: The filly will benefit from the expertise and superior horsemanship of the staff at Woodford Thoroughbreds in Ocala. In addition to breeding and selling mares, weanlings, yearlings and two-year-olds, Woodford offers breaking, training, and consignment. We have had much success with horses coming out of Woodford and we enjoy a great relationship with John and Susan Sykes and their staff. Woodford has served as the training ground for many outstanding horses, including Cairo Prince, Stopchargingmaria, Midnight Bisou and Discreet Lover.
